MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Remembrance

The children took time to reflect together with the adults and church representatives from the 'Open the Book' team to observe a time of silence on Wednesday. We recognised the connections to many families who served in the wars over the years. Respect continues to be our value for this term. The classes looked at Remembrance activities as part of the importance of Armistice Day. Thank you for your donations to The Royal British Legion's Poppy Apeal.

Samaritan's Purse Shoebox Appeal

Thank you for your kind donations of items and the filled shoeboxes which have been received in school for this year's appeal.

School Vision Launch

We look forward to sharing our new school vision with you all soon! Our vision launch assembly will be held next Tuesday at 2.30pm when you are all welcome to join us.

Bikeability

Class 4 have had a brilliant week at Bikeability. The instructors have worked with the children in small groups to ensure they get the maximum benefit from the training.

The Reception Class enjoyed the balance bike session today and learnt new skills.
