MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

CLASSROOM NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

Class 1 – The pupils have been enjoying the Autumn celebrations with lots of colourful pictures being created.

Class 2 – The pupils have been learning about Florence Nightingale.

Class 3 – The pupils have started swimming classes this term and enjoyed their first session.

Class 4 – The pupils have been creating their Remembrance Day display with a range of writing and craft. They have also made the new house displays in the entrance corridor.

Donations

Thank you for the toy donations for the Christmas Fayre from today's non-uniform day. A separate day will be arranged for non-uniform for the children in Class 4 the week after next.

School lunches

Please can the menu choices be discussed with your child at home before orders are placed to ensure these are the best options for them. Thank you.

BOOK FAYRE 12TH NOVEMBER

Books4Bugs will be at school on Tuesday 12th November which Mrs Rowberry will be running. There will be an opportunity for parents to browse and purchase books for a cost of £3 each anytime from 2.30pm until 4.00pm. If you are not able to join us, don't worry, your child will have the chance to buy a book from the stall earlier in the afternoon.
